HALLOWEEN PARTY HELD AT COUPLES CLUB

The Mattapoisett Congregational Church
Couples Club held their Halloween party on Tuesday evening, October 18th in the church vestry. Everyone arrived as a ghost and sat in silence until identified by the others guessing who was under the ghost
attire. Following, the presidents, Mr.
and Mrs. Richard Chase conducted the business meeting. The Rev. and Mrs. Frederic Reynard were welcomed as new members.

Following the meeting, Richard Tirrell, assisted by Bradford Mandell, performed
a magic show.

With the lights dimmed, Mrs. Lawrence C.
Young read ghost stories and everyone joined in.

Refreshments of donuts and coffee were served by Mr. and Mrs. John M. Souza, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Perkins. The refreshment table was attractively decorated with a huge pumpkin. Smaller pumpkins adorned the vestry and around the walls were Halloween motifs.

ATTENTION GOLFERS

Golfers who are looking for a new and pleasant experience should try the course
at the Marion Golf Club.

The second shot on practically every hole, you will find just a little bit
on the tricky side.

The rolling terrain can be walked without feeling you are mountain climbing
and you will find it is a pleasurable exercise without it being a physical workout.

The greens, whose caretaker is Joe Ingalls, are in perfect condition and the fairways are in good shape in spite of the hurricane.

Len Sherman will be on hand to greet you,
and don't forget the Turkey Tournaments,
so popular on past weekends that they are being conducted as a Wednesday attraction
at the usual low week day rates.

Prove your skill, enjoy a day in the open and enter into the competition for a day, and once you have tried, you will undoubtedly repeat again and again.

THELMA LITTLE HAS INTERESTING HOBBY

Thelma Little of Brandt Island Road, Mattapoisett celebrated her birthday on October 14th. Miss Little is somewhat of a hobbyist and a member of several pen pal clubs. She received birthday greetings from all through continental United States, Alaska and Hawaii, also from England, Ireland and Australia.

One of Miss Little's hobbies has been to contact others of the same name, first name, last name, or both as hers. She has found 2 who have the exact same full name besides having the same exact birth date. Throughout her many contacts Miss Little has found many suspected, but no proven, relatives. Surprisingly she finds most persons named Little are large people.

RECEIPT FOR SUCCESS

You can, by referring to the simplest things, run into the most interesting incidents.

A simple remark complimenting "Senator" Pepper on his new birthday gift, a new yachting cap presented by his children, brought up a topic I was sure would interest many of our readers.

A short time ago we referred to Skid and his close association to five generations of one of our local families. The fact that we considered it of interest caused Mr. Pepper to rather proudly call my attention to a solid gold emblem he always wears.

Resembling in size an American Legion pin, it carries an Old English R in its center. On the left is an eagle and on the right a lion, with beautiful coordination of design. It was presented to Mr. Arthur E. Pepper in commemoration of fifty years of loyal service and fidelity to Reed & Barton Co. of Taunton, Mass. A plaque hanging in their office is a permanent record of it.

Mr. Pepper served many more years after the presentation and learned his trade so well as to become a perfectionist of engraving and designing. Even today at his age of 83 he does beautiful work as evidenced by the appearance of the Tub Mill Brook ad which he created in its entirety.

Starting with Reed & Barton under an apprentice contract as a young man which bound him to four years as such was a serious business. He was required to work 310 days a year and his pay was fifty cents a day the first year, sixty-two and one half cents a day the second year, seventy-five cents a day the third year and one dollar a day the fourth year. If sickness occurred he received no pay for time lost and was required to make up the lost time by working equivalent extra days to those lost. Following this, he was on his own and a qualified engraver and designer.

During his service with the company, he was privileged to engrave personally the casket plates for four generations of the Henry G. Reed family and a baby cup for the fifth generation, Henry G. Reed, William B. Dowse, Mrs. Sinclair Weeks, Mrs. Roger Halliwell and the cup for the Halliwell baby. Yes, the Mrs. Sinclair Weeks was the wife of the famous Washington figure, Sinclair Weeks.

So it is, that in the span of little over half a century, a man we see and talk to daily, quiet, unassuming gentleman that he

He has served us well, ably, efficiently and untiringly. He has proven to be an outstanding leader for our district on Beacon Hill and a credit to his party.

He has supported Governor Herter 100% in his administration and holds the distinct honor of having a 99% Roll Call Record for the past session, consisting of two years.

In appointing Worrall to the powerful House Ways and Means Committee, The Hon. Charles Gibbons, Speaker of the House said, "Worrall's training, experience and willingness for hard work are ample qualifications for this position."

Besides being a member of this all important group, Worrall is chairman of two Sub-Committees of the House Ways and Means, namely; Waterways and Military Affairs and is a member of the committees on Department of Correction and Airports and the Port of Boston.

"Senator" Pepper

is, really has much to feel proud of, yet I never knew, as perhaps many of you never did, that he is really famous in tradition. Famous in his own right as a artisian, who learned his business in the true spirit of American Industry by starting at the bottom and as I see it, receiving his real diploma after fifty years of service.

Today we serve our apprentices in college, and I suppose the percentage who become proficient after receiving a diploma, is probably about as great as those who became outstanding after graduating as apprentices of industry. But I am sure it still proves that patience, time and desire for perfection was, is and always shall be the predominant motivation that carries one to his own personal greatness.

Mr. Pepper is the father of Mrs. Bryant R. Weeks of Tub Mill Brook and Mrs. David C. Moore with whom he resides on Mechanic Street, Mattapoisett.
